

DR. LEO PINKETT, A.C.E., L.U.T.C. is the graduate of the prestigious historical black institution, Morehouse College, where he earned an undergraduate degree in Business Administration. Immediately after graduation, he landed a position as a Special Agent with Prudential Life Insurance. As the youngest and the first African American in the company for the southeast region, he developed the company's first fully detached agency division in the country. While continuously providing affordable financial protection to families of all nationalities, he was honored with the Presidential Citation Award for 4 consecutive years. This in turn assisted in creating strong ties with businesses and community efforts partnering together to strengthen the urban community. Moreover, this model was implemented and duplicated throughout the company nationwide. Dr. Leo Pinkett has been inducted as a life member in the Million-Dollar Round Table, which commemorate top sales agents in the life insurance profession worldwide. After completing several successful years in management and training dozens of young professionals, he ventured out to start his own insurance agency, L.P. International Marketing Group, Inc., focussing on life and annuity sales. Dr. Pinkett has been committed to the industry for over 35 years and has earned advance certifications in business planning and estate planning, including the distinguish honorary doctorate degree of Humane Letters from Texas College.

At an early age, Dr. Pinkett knew that his purpose in this life was to be a servant. Dr. Pinkett is past President and Life member of Financial Insurance Professionals of Georgia. He is very involved in civic affairs in Atlanta and the southeast region. He is Vice-President of the Donald L. Hollowell Foundation, Inc., Life member of SCLC (Southern Christian Leadership Conference), National Health Underwriters Association, PUSH Coalition member, Life member of the NAACP and the National Urban League; just to name a few. As a leader in the community of various non-profit organizations, he works enthusiastically to uphold a rich heritage for which where much is given, much is expected. He feels that there is always a higher goal to reach and fulfilling the needs of the greater community only help serve the educational and social needs in the African American community.

As a Lay spiritual leader, his daily purpose is to create vision and value congruence across a strategic empowered team to foster a higher faith-based commitment to Christ. Dr. Pinkett is the General Secretary for the Department of Ministry to Men for the Christian Methodist Episcopal Church world-wide, Pan Methodist Commission member, and founder of the "Paradigm Pioneers". These programs help impact men, youth, and families both spiritually and economically to do more than just exist but to excel as productive citizens. With these organizations, Dr. Pinkett constantly insure that all Methodist communions collaborate as a group effort to bridge the gap for a better future. As a committed mentor in the community, Dr. Pinkett forms structured and trusted relationships that bring people of all ages together to offer guidance, support, and encouragement aimed at developing the competence and character that will make a positive change and difference in the world. His spiritual focus is to leave "NO MAN BEHIND" and help winning souls to Christ.

Dr. Pinkett and his wife Dorothy, of 38 years, are extremely proud parents of three children: Demetrius, Sr. (Dana), Doris Pinkett-Hobbs (Theron), and Dionne Pinkett-Foy (Larry Antoine). Through their beloved marriages were produced the 8 finest grandchildren: Demetrius, Jr., D'Angelo, Daija, Nemiah, Melaiah, Jah'son, Trenton, and Destiny. Generations are changed because of his passion for mentoring families of all diversities and social-economic backgrounds. Through his acts of faith, people are discovering their life's purpose and destinies. Because of the favor on his life, Dr. Leo Pinkett has close relationships with key leaders in the religious, political, and business arenas; consequently, this humble servant is one who is committed to serve.

His motto: "You teach what you know, but you reproduce what you ARE!"